Why a 3rd Party Expert Matters

An experienced senior appraiser is critical when hiring a 3rd party expert to assist you with valuation matters pertaining to US GAAP and IFRS accounting requirements. An accurate and independent valuation of the security, derivative, asset, or liability in question is essential for financial reporting, serving as the foundation for compliance with regulatory standards, supporting audit processes with defensible, well-documented analyses, and providing stakeholders with reliable data. The growth of fair value measurements in US GAAP and IFRS has increased the compliance burden on corporate finance teams. Adamy brings the knowledge and proven processes to complete this work effectively and efficiently, helping clients close audits on time.
